Defendant.)

Defendant, Terri Anderson ("Anderson"), by and through her counsel of record, Vanessa M. Ramos, hereby submits the following memorandum to the Court regarding restitution. Anderson recognizes that this Court must impose restitution in this case under 18 U.S.C. § 2259, which requires mandatory restitution in cases of this nature.

The estimates and proposals set forth in the Government's memorandum appear to be a reasonable assessment of potential future costs of counseling.¹ However, Anderson submits that if counsel were to cease, or some other circumstance were to occur which altered the proposed schedule of weekly counseling sessions, she be allowed to petition the Court for a modification of any restitution order.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 1st day of May, 2005.
